

Alexandra Resina da Silva

General Counsel

(+351) 21 311 3486

ars@vda.pt

Alexandra Resina da Silva joined VdA in 2001. She is VdA's General Counsel and responsible for the firm's Compliance and Risk Management programme.

Prior to this, Alexandra was responsible for VdA's Commercial, Notarial and Registration Practice, where she was actively involved in numerous domestic and international transactions notably within M&A and corporate restructurings across the pharmaceutical, energy, transport and financial industries, as well as regularly advising companies regarding general meetings, preparation of all kind of public deeds, commercial and real estate registration and notarial practice.

Academic background

Law Degree, Catholic University of Lisbon, Faculty of Law.

Commercial Law Studies with the conclusion of the first part of her masters degree in Legal-Commercial Sciences, Catholic University of Lisbon, Faculty of Law.

Advanced Training in Compliance by IFB - Instituto de Formação Bancária (includes training in Compliance, Risk Management, KYC, AML, Audit).

Member of

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association.

Languages

English, French, Spanish.

