

António de Sousa

Associate Banking & Finance

(+351) 21 311 3400

ams@vda.pt

António de Sousa joined VdA in 2015. He is an Associate in the Banking & Finance Department, having been actively involved in advising several asset managers in regulatory and legal matters, such as the setting up of collective investment schemes, providing on-going assistance to the respective managers, as well as in respect of sale and purchase transactions in connection with assets under management or their shareholdings.

He also has been actively working in several securitization and debt issuing transactions, advising several entities in such transactions notably in their capacity as common representatives, transaction managers and issuers.

In 2017, as a secondee, he was stationed with a real estate management company, providing on-going counseling on regulatory and compliance matters.

In three occasions during 2018 and 2019, António was stationed as a secondee with a credit institution operating in East-Timor, leading the legal department of such institution and undertaking overall responsibility for all legal aspects in relation to its activity.

Academic background

Law degree at Nova University of Lisbon, Faculty of Law

Masters in Law and Business, Católica University of Lisbon

Certificate in transnational legal studies by the Center for Transnational Legal Studies London

Member of

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association.

Languages

English.