

Ricardo Bordalo Junqueiro

Head of Practice Partner Competition & EU

(+351) 21 311 3392

rbj@vda.pt

Ricardo Bordalo Junqueiro rejoined VdA in 2018. Head of Practice Partner of the Competition & EU practice, Ricardo has been involved in various operations, particularly in the electronic communications, energy, pharmaceutical, financial, media and infrastructure sectors, as well as accompanying economic regulation matters in the electronic communications sector.

Awards & Recognitions

Lawyer of the Year, Best Lawyers - Competition / Antitrust Law - 2022

Lawyer of the Year, Best Lawyers - European Union Law (Lisbon) - 2020

International Law Office (ILO), Clients Choice Awards - Competition & Antitrust - 2019

Academic background

Law Degree, Portuguese Catholic University, Faculty of Law.

LLM in EC Law, University of Essex, Department of Law.

Advanced Programme in the Economics of Regulation and Competition, Portuguese Catholic University, Faculty of Economics.

Post-graduation in European Competition Law, King's College, University of London.

Other professional background

Prior to joining the firm, he was a partner in the Cuatrecasas law firm since 2017.

Between August 2013 and December 2016, he was Of Counsel of the law firm Cuatrecasas. Between 2002 and 2013 joined Vieira de Almeida & Associados (VdA) as Lawyer at the Competition & EU practice, where he has worked actively in several transactions, particularly in the electronic communications, pharmaceuticals, infrastructures and postal sectors.

In 2005 and 2006 he was the Lawyer in charge of VdA Brussels office.

Published works

Author of several works in Competition Law, with emphasis on the book “Abusos de Posição Dominante”, Almedina, 2012.

Member of

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association.

Member of the Circle of Portuguese Competition Lawyers (CAPDE).

Member of Portuguese Association for the Development of Communications.

Languages

English.