Joined VdA in 1999. Head Partner of the Investigations & White-Collar practice.

Has extensive experience in advising on criminal litigation matters, with a focus on economic and corporate crimes (including cybercrime, capital markets-related crimes, fraud, corruption and related offences, scams, and tax crimes, among others), including searches and seizures.

Recognised for designing and implementing innovative defence strategies in regulatory and misdemeanour proceedings brought by the various sectoral regulatory authorities and by transversal authorities (including the Portuguese Securities Market Commission (CMVM), National Data Protection Commission (CNPD), Economic and Food Safety Authority (ASAE), Portuguese Competition Authority (AdC), Portuguese Regulatory Authority for Communications (ANACOM), Energy Services Regulatory Authority (ERSE), Portuguese Regulatory Authority for the Media (ERC), Portuguese Games Regulation and Inspection Service (SRIJ), Portuguese Authority for Medicines and Health Products (INFARMED), and the Inspectorate-General for Agriculture, the Sea, the Environment, and Spatial Planning (IGAMAOT), in the following sectors: banking, financial and capital markets, insurance, environment, tax, labour, telecommunications, privacy, postal, health, games, construction, real estate and urban planning, and competition).

Has vast corporate risk management expertise, advising both national and multinational entities on the design and development of compliance programmes in the fields of corruption prevention, anti-money laundering and terrorist financing, and whistleblower protection.

Advises on international sanctions imposed by the European Union and the United Nations and supports the defence in non-compliance investigations.

Assists clients in ongoing cases of the European Public Prosecutor's Office.

Conducts internal investigations to prepare companies' defences following the launch of sanction procedures and in the context of due diligence exercises and periodic compliance reviews.

Regularly participates in proceedings for the enforcement in Portugal of sanctions imposed by foreign countries and for the collection of evidence requiring international judicial cooperation.
