

Sofia Bobone

Managing Associate Corporate & Governance

(+351) 21 311 3400

sob@vda.pt

Sofia Bobone joined VdA in 2006. She is currently a managing associate integrating the Corporate & Governance practice area, having been involved in several transactions, mainly focused on the acquisition and sale of companies, and corporate restructuring plans as well as corporate assistance to several companies.

Has also been actively working in corporate finance and acquisition finance transactions, advising several national and international clients, particularly implementing and accompanying private equity investment projects.

Academic background

Law Degree by the Law School of the Portuguese Catholic University (Lisbon).

Other professional background

During 2017 and 2018, Sofia integrated the Corporate practice área at Kirkland & Ellis LLP, in New York, where she was involved in several interational Private Equity transactions.

Published works

Author of several articles published in specialized journals, including the International Corporate Governance digital guide.

Member of

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association.

Languages

English.