

Tiago Correia Moreira

Partner Banking & Finance

(+351) 21 311 3677

tcm@vda.pt

Tiago Correia Moreira joined VdA in 2003. He is Partner at the Banking & Finance practice area.

Tiago has been involved in transactions across the banking and financial sectors, particularly in the acquisition and sale of non-performing loans and secured loans (including aeronautic financing), as well as all regulatory work pertaining to these sectors.

Tiago regularly assists clients in carrying out their activities in Portugal and abroad with domestic and foreign regulators.

Tiago is an active player in VdA's Fintech team, advising on the financial component. He oversees matters relating to payment services, issuance of digital currency and the deployment of new technologies to the banking and financial sectors.

Academic background

Law Degree, University of Lisbon, Faculty of Law.

Post-graduation in Legislative Science and Law Drafting, University of Lisbon, Faculty of Law.

Magister Juris, Oxford University (Exeter College) in Finance Law and European Private Law.

Master in Law ("The Record Date System and the Concept of Shareholder in Public Companies").

Published works

Author of various articles namely on banking and finance matters, namely:

- "Case: How the Basel II Principles are accommodated in the Portuguese Securitisation Legal Framework", Global Banking and Financial Policy Review 2008/2009 (co-author)
- "Jurisdictional Comparisons (Portugal)", International Acquisition Finance (2008) (co-author)
- "Basel II and its impacts on structured finance transactions originated in Portugal", Euromoney Global Banking &

Financial Policy Review (2007) (co-author)

Member of

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association.

Languages

English, French.