

David Nogueira Palma

Associate Banking & Finance

(+351) 21 311 3400

dnp@vda.pt

David Nogueira Palma joined VdA in 2018. He is an Associate at the Banking & Finance area of practice, where he is involved in several transactions across the banking and financial sectors, namely in Portugal and abroad, focused in the creation and structuring of asset portfolio financing and other asset-backed transactions, credit securitisations and in the placement and issue of debt instruments.

Previously, he worked in several agreements and litigations regarding the protection of industrial property rights at the IP Litigation area of practice.

In 2019, David was stationed as a secondee with a real estate management company, providing ongoing counselling on regulatory, contractual and compliance matters.

Academic background

Law degree University of Lisbon, Faculty of Law.

Masters in Corporate Law at Católica Portuguese University, Faculty of Law, School of Lisbon.

Post-graduate in Company Law, by the Centre of Investigation of Private Law.

Post-graduate in Advanced Banking Law, by the Centre of Investigation of Private Law.

Other professional background

Before joining the firm, he undertook a Summer Internship at Cuatrecasas, Gonçalves Pereira & Associados, on Mergers & Acquisitions in July of 2017.

Member of

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association.

Languages

English, Spanish.