

Marta Pita da Silva

Associate Investigations & White Collar

(+351) 21 311 3400

mps@vda.pt

Joined VdA in 2021. Associate of the Investigations & White-Collar practice.

Has handled various criminal cases, with a focus on economic and financial crimes, and administrative offences, notably in the following sectors: communications, insurance, health, pharmaceutical, energy, environment, privacy, and online games and betting.

Conducts internal investigations to prepare companies' defences following the launch of sanction procedures and in the context of due diligence exercises and periodic compliance reviews.

Academic background

Law degree from the Faculty of Law of the University of Lisbon.

Attended the 6th Advanced Postgraduate Course in Arbitration Law organised by the Research Centre for Private Law (CIDP) of the Faculty of Law of the University of Lisbon.

Published works

- Filipa Cotta, Roberto Ornelas Monteiro & Marta Pita da Silva, "O dever de apresentação à insolvência – consequências do seu incumprimento?" (The duty to file for insolvency – consequences of non-compliance?), in A Prática do Contencioso – Reflexões e Tendências de Direito Substantivo e Processual, Coord. Frederico Gonçalves Pereira, Almedina, 2024

Member of

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association.

Languages

English.