

Salomé Corte-Real

Managing Associate Tax

(+351) 22 976 8484

sacr@vda.pt

Salomé Corte-Real joined VdA in 2021. She is a Managing Associate of Tax practice.

She has assisted many national and multinational companies across the energy, banking, and telecommunications sectors, to name a few, as well as high-value private clients. Salomé is experienced in tax litigation and has been regularly involved in major corporate restructuring processes.

Academic background

Law degree, Universidade do Porto Law School.

Specialized Accounting Training Course for Lawyers, Universidade do Porto Law School.

Postgraduate degree in Tax Law, Universidade do Porto Law School.

Postgraduate degree in Corporate Law, Instituto de Direito das Empresas e do Trabalho [Corporate and Labor Law Institute].

Summer Course – Customs Law, Universidade Católica Portuguesa Law School.

Specialized Taxation and Tax Planning Training, Católica Porto Business School.

Executive Master's in Management for Lawyers, Católica Porto Business School.

Other professional background

Before joining the firm, she was a Senior Associate at PLMJ, and a consultant at Deloitte and EY.

Published works

- Article “O regime fiscal (neutro ou quase) das SIGI (“REIT”) portuguesas”, 07/02/2019

- Op-ed for the Autoclube, ACP, 20/10/2017
- Op-ed on VAT charged in invoices issued by a wound-up company, 19/08/2016
- Op-ed on small retailers' VAT, 29/07/2016
- Article in Vida Económica "O IVA nas refeições 'take-away', 06/05/2016

Member of

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association.

Languages

English, Spanish.