

Miguel González Amado

Managing Associate Tax

(+351) 22 976 8484

mgam@vda.pt

Miguel González Amado joined VdA in 2021. He is a Managing Associate of the Tax practice.

He has over 12 years of experience providing across-the-board tax advice.

Miguel focuses on providing tax advice to national and international groups in connection with corporate restructurings and real estate transactions, and to private clients in connection with direct and indirect taxation, taxes on wealth and stamp duty. He also has ample experience in tax litigation and in managing tax inspection, tax enforcement, and tax offense procedures.

Academic background

Law Degree, Universidade Católica Portuguesa.

Postgraduate degree in Tax Law, Universidade do Porto Law School.

Ph.D. in Law, Universidade do Porto Law School (not completed – enrolment suspended).

Other professional background

Before joining the firm, he was a Senior Associate at PLMJ, Principal Associate at Cuatrecasas, Associate at Telles, and Tax Analyst at Deloitte.

Published works

Miguel has authored and co-authored several articles and publications, and has been a contributor to works and industry magazines, including:

- International Fiscal Association | Group approach and separate entity approach in domestic and international tax

law, 2022 Berlin Congress

- International Tax Review | Beneficial owner for the purposes of the IRD - the state of the art in Portugal
- IBFD | Tax Procedures (national report - Portugal)
Congresso EATLP Madrid 2019
- Boletim da Ordem dos Advogados | O Regime Fiscal da Afetação da Habitação do Advogado para a sua Atividade Profissional
- Centro de Investigação Jurídico-Económica | A Garantia Idónea à Luz da Recente Jurisprudência do STA

Member of

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association.

Registered with the Portuguese Tax Association.

Languages

English, Spanish.