

Beatriz Assunção Ribeiro

Associate Information, Communication & Technology

(+351) 21 311 3400

bea@vda.pt

Beatriz Assunção Ribeiro joined VdA in 2022. She is an Associate at the Information, Communication & Technology area of practice.

Academic background

Law degree, NOVA School of Law.

Masters in Cognitive Science , University of Lisbon.

Currently attending post-graduation in Intellectual Property, APDI.

Intensive course on space law, NOVA School of Law.

Intensive course on law of the sea (NOVA School of Law).

Intensive course on Bioethics (Catholic University of Porto).

Other professional background

Before joining the firm, she worked as an associate at CTSU – A Deloitte Legal Practice where she worked with all types of cutting-edge technology, intellectual property, privacy and data protection matters, and other areas such as e-mobility and e-commerce.

Prior to CTSU – A Deloitte Legal Practice, she worked as a trainee lawyer at PRA – Raposo, Sá Miranda and Associados, dealing with both litigation and consulting regarding intellectual property, technology, regulation and advertising.

Published works

Author of various books and articles namely:

- Metacognition, Accountability and Legal Personhood of AI (2022).
- The Privacy, Data Protection and Cybersecurity Law Review – Portugal chapter (2021).

- Intellectual Properties of Artificial Creativity: Dismantling Originality in European's Legal Framework (2020).
- Legal Implications of Autonomous Vehicles – What We Know So Far and What's Left to Work On (2019).

Member of

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association.

Member of ANJAP's national board.

Languages

English, Spanish.