

Isabel Valente Sanches

Consultant Energy & Natural Resources

(+351) 21 311 3400

ivs@vda.pt

Isabel Valente Sanches rejoined VdA in 2023 as a Consultant at the Energy & Natural Resources practice area, where she has been involved in several transactions, particularly in the financing (project finance) of projects in the energy sector, with a focus on renewable energy projects, and in advising the various entities operating in the sector in regulatory matters.

Academic background

Bachelor's degree in Political Science and International Relations from the NOVA University of Lisbon.

Law degree from the Faculty of Law of the NOVA University of Lisbon.

Masters in Law (Mestrado Forense) at the Catholic University of Portugal (pending dissertation).

Attendance of the Post-Graduation in Energy Law at the Catholic University of Portugal.

Other professional background

Isabel worked as a Junior Associate and then as an Associate with the Energy & Natural Resources practice area in VdA between September 2014 and May 2021.

Between October 2020 and April 2021, she was seconded from VdA at the European Investment Bank (EIB), and went on to work as legal counsel for the EIB between July 2021 and December 2022.

Member of

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association.

Languages

English, French, German.