

Ana Lickfold de Novaes e Silva

Managing Associate Litigation & Arbitration

(+351) 21 311 3460

ans@vda.pt

Ana Lickfold de Novaes e Silva joined VdA in 2004. Managing Associate of the Litigation & Arbitration practice, she is mainly focused on civil and commercial litigation, representing national and foreign companies in significant disputes before the Courts of Portugal and Portuguese and international arbitration centres, namely the International Chamber of Commerce.

Academic background

Law Degree, Catholic University of Porto, Faculty of Law.

Post-graduation in Banking, Securities and Insurance Law, University of Coimbra, Faculty of Law.

Post-graduation in Management and Corporate Law, University Nova of Lisbon, Faculty of Economics.

Other professional background

Before joining the firm worked as associate at the law firms Sousa Machado, Ferreira da Costa e Associados and João Nabais e Associados.

Published works

Co-author of: Commentary to the Voluntary Arbitration Law ["Lei da Arbitragem Voluntária Comentada"], Editora Almedina, March 2014

Member of

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association.

Languages

English, French.