

Vasco Vieira de Almeida

Founding Partner

(+351) 21 311 3475

mpa@vda.pt

Founding Partner. Vasco Vieira de Almeida focuses on corporate and banking law, having led key international transactions, particularly assisting major foreign investors in Portugal.

Academic background

Law degree University of Lisbon, Faculty of Law.

Other professional background

- Director, British Chamber of Commerce (1967-1969)
- Vice Chairman (1969) and Director (1977-1980), German Chamber of Commerce
- Director, Italian Chamber of Commerce (1970)
- Managing Director, Banco Português do Atlântico (1970-1972)
- Chairman, Banco Crédito Predial (1972-1974)
- Minister of Economic Coordination, Government of Portugal (1974)
- Minister of Economic Affairs, Government of Angola - Representing the Portuguese Government (1975)
- Roving Ambassador of the Portuguese Government, (1976)
- Honorary Legal Advisor to the British Ambassador in Portugal (1980-1990)

Published works

He has written extensively and speaks regularly on legal and economic issues, both in Portugal and abroad.

Member of

Member of the Portuguese Bar Association since 1961.